

Steimle Birschbach, LLC
Business. Trusts & Estates. Real Estate.

To our clients: You may have received a letter from Whyte Hirschboeck Dudek, S.C. regarding that law firm combining with Husch Blackwell, LLP, a St. Louis based law firm. We apologize if you received this letter if you are no longer a client of that firm. Our office is not affiliated with Whyte Hirschboeck Dudek, S.C., nor with Husch Blackwell, LLP. Steimle Birschbach, LLC did not generate or participate in the generation of that communication. The letter was prepared by Whyte Hirschboeck Dudek, S.C. and sent not only to its current clients, but also its past clients (many of which are now clients of Steimle Birschbach, LLC, and have been for several years). Regrettably, that letter did not clarify that it was being sent to both current and former clients, resulting in significant confusion to many of our current clients.

Please know that if you are a current Steimle Birschbach, LLC client, or if your legal files reside with our office, and you no longer have any open matters with Whyte Hirschboeck Dudek, S.C., you are not affected in any way by the combination of those law firms. If this is an accurate description of your situation, you do not have to take any action whatsoever regarding the letter. You may simply ignore it. The merger of those two unrelated firms in no way impacts Steimle Birschbach, LLC.

Attorneys Andrew Steimle and Michelle Birschbach were former partners with Whyte Hirschboeck Dudek, S.C. until 2009 when they formed Steimle Birschbach, LLC. We believe this is why many of our current clients received the letter. Rest assured that Andy, Michelle and the rest of us at Steimle Birschbach, LLC, will remain based in Northeast Wisconsin with our headquarters in Manitowoc. We look forward to continuing to serve your business, real estate and estate planning needs.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any further questions or concerns whatsoever:
